

FRONT OFFICE MEDEWERKER

2 HOTELS GECOMBINEERD

Wanted: A front-office superhero who can simultaneously greet guests with a smile and fend off any villainous room reservation errors.

As our front-office medewerker, you'll be the first line of defense against any booking bloopers or check-in calamities. But don't worry, you won't have to do it alone. Our team is like the Avengers, but with hotel management skills.

We're looking for someone with superhuman multitasking abilities, who can juggle check-ins, phone calls, and guest requests like it's just another day in the Marvel universe. You'll need to have excellent communication skills, a friendly demeanor, and a willingness to wear a cape (just kidding...but seriously, if you have a cape, we won't judge).

And while we don't require any previous experience fighting off evil robots or saving the world, we do require previous experience in a customer service or hospitality role.

So if you're ready to join our team of hotel superheroes, please apply with your resume and a brief explanation of what superpower you would bring to the front-office. (Hint: flight and x-ray vision are cool, but we're really looking for someone with a superhuman ability to make guests feel welcome).
